

Convergence of summation-by-parts finite difference methods for the wave equation

- The wave equation in the second order form

$$u_{tt} = u_{xx} + F.$$

- The summation-by-parts finite difference methods
- The truncation error is large near a boundary

- $\|error\|_h \leq Ch^q$. $q \sim p$?